

FIRST ANNUAL

HUGH'S ROOM

★ Showcase ★

THURS SEPT 18 8:00PM

David Celia Trio

selina martin Idanilson
it will be sweet harmonies, acoustic guitar and probably some other odd instuments

Jerome Godboo

Anyone who has seen Jerome live has the image seared in their mind.
There's the machismo and the mischievous grin, the low-slung leather belt of harmonicas. there's a tenderness & vulnerability as well.

Mike Branton

Although this well traveled blues guitarist has been performing regularly, his focus over the last few years has been on his craft. Mike has re-emerged as one of the most skilled players you will ever hear

Ricky Joe Vella

Ricky Joe's positive point of view & carefree attitude, underscored by a distinct love for life stand out in his music and especially on stage, where he smiles and laughs through his lighthearted story-driven set.

Redman Live

A treat to the discerning ear with spot on vocals and harmonies, Redman Live mixes new country and classic rock cover songs with their own original material.

James Parker

James continues to win hearts & electrify audiences one performance at a time.
"My aim is to play with passion, energy, and with as little pretension as possible in a world awash in posturing".

James MacKay

Wes McClintock
Matured into a great songwriting team.
Hard work is evident in arrangements & harmonies

Featuring These Young Artists
